Summary of Information

PREFACE: I feel not a terribly productive session. Whatever the target is, it made me extremely ill. During the session, I experienced sensations of dizziness, headaches, upset stomach, extreme difficulty in breathing and just overall a really rotten feeling (reminiscent of having the flu). I have had sinus problems for the past two weeks, but nothing like this.

Recurring sensation of the earth moving in waves reminiscent of waves radiating out from a rock thrown into a pond except these waves are long and very high. The activity involves intelligent people and a "countdown". Eventually the situation these individuals are in will change dramatically; almost like an eruption, at least on that scale. Soil is being shoved forward and "thrown".

There is the concept of "common use" and someone is preoccupied with the thought that " 'this' should be the same price for everyone". There is also a preoccupation with "seismic activity" and "resonance". There are alternating signals, a rumbling sound and a persistent up-and-down, up-and-down.

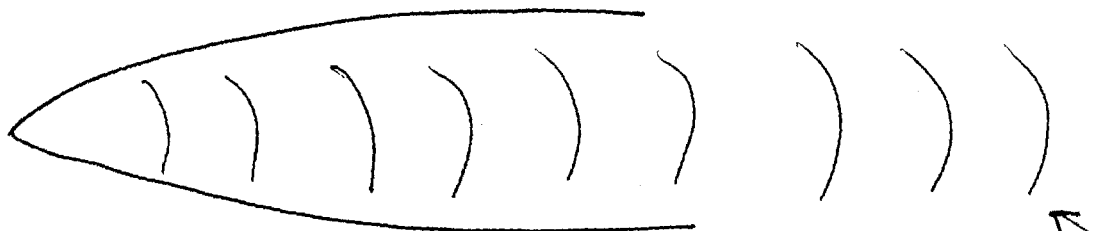

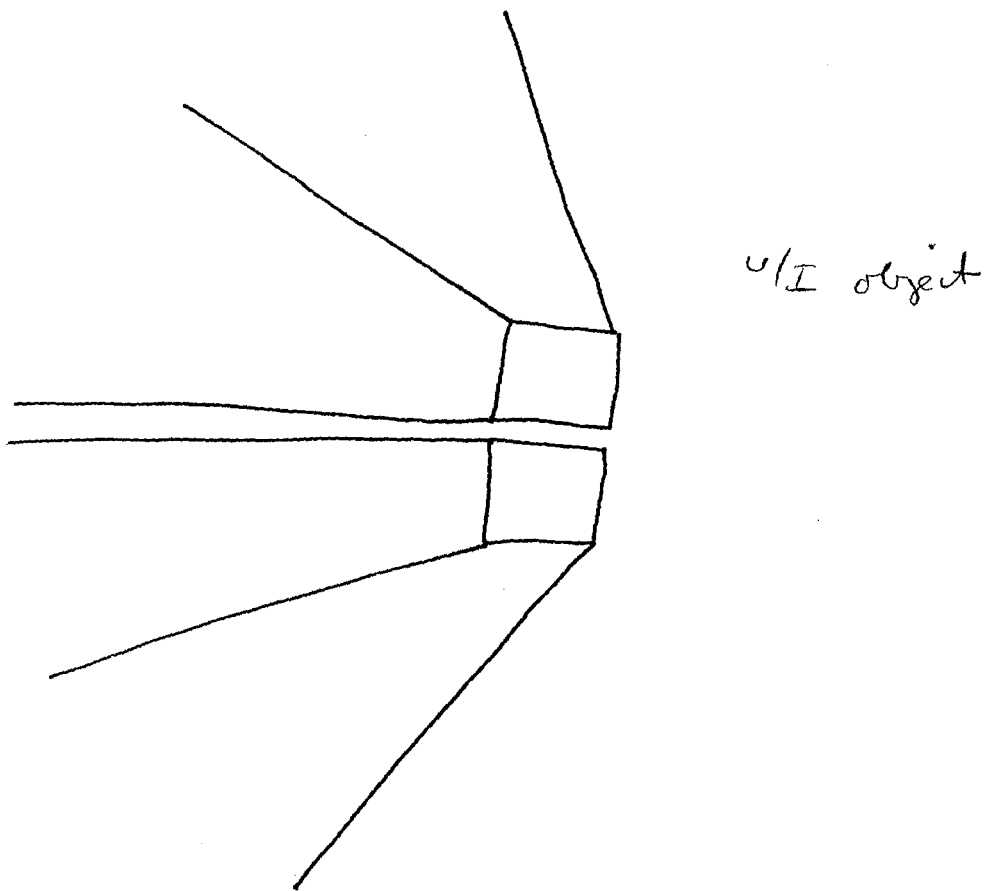

There are scoop-like objects moving large amounts of something resembling earth but is different from normal soil to the touch. The mechanical movement involves a massive shifting in content or context. There is an alteration of material; it is melting and being reformed. It becomes more "homogeneous".

The area has fractures, cracks, cleavages and it is black, deep, hollow and frightening. One location contains a thick, powdery and choking dust which someone is walking through.

There is a "long rail" in a dark place. Waves are radiating out from a central point and are moving across or through a plaza full of people.

There is a arched hollow which occurs within the bottom of a very narrow and visually deceiving canyon. It sits at the base of a tall rugged slope. The activity inside consists of individuals intensely studying large rectangularly shaped objects on the wall.

At this point there was an overpowering image of an Arab attack on southern Russia in order to capture "nukes". This situation became so overpowering and AOL producing that it effectively ended the session.

MEMO FOR: CH, ODT-S

SUBJECT: PROJECT 92-4-0(U)

1. (S/NF) The target appears to be a structure allied with the concepts of storage and manufacturing. The target building is located in an isolated area. Soil excavation and movement also appears associated with the target. Two sources associated the target with the odors and tastes normally associated with that of toxic materials.

2. (U) The isolation of the site implies a sense of illegality and secrecy.
